He had great insight as to the activities of the Jews 100 years ago more so than the Jews himself. They had a network here that was corrupted. The Rothschild network, which made money off of them and he persecuted them to make it look like the Christians did it. Ford is not an anti-Semite, but was obsessed with the Jews because of their network.2 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Complete 4 Volumes The International Jew - The World's Foremost Problem is a four volume set of booklets or pamphlets published and distributed in the early 1920s by Henry Ford, an American industrialist and automobile manufacturer. In Spring 1920, Ford made his personal newspaper, The Dearborn Independent, chronicle what he considered the "Jewish menace". Every week for 91 issues, the paper exposed some sort of Jewish-inspired evil major story in a headline. The most popular and aggressive stories were then chosen to be reprinted into four volumes called The International Jew.
