0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great information for any wicca or wicceBy EricI bought the entire series going back to its first publication. Great information for any wicca or wicce. Blessings!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Excellent almanacBy AthenaStormI've always loved Llewellyns almanacs and this was no exception. Wonderful addition to a witch's library regardless of the age of the almanac.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Why review in 2007?By T. SteffesSimple! These almanacs contain so much more information than just the moon/astrological infor for that year. It's packed full of articles for people of many Pagan traditions to enjoy. You also get a taste of many different Llewellyn authors so you can decide who you'd like to read and who you'd rather skip. I keep all of these, and know I always will!

Make 2004 a Year of Enchantment and Magic. Both seasonal and everyday rituals will sparkle with enchantment when you use Llewellyn's 2004 Magical Almanac as your guide.Over the years, this little treasury of folklore, recipes, myths, and meditations has become a trusted companion to practitioners of various magical paths. The calendar section includes information on the Moon's sign and phase, traditional Pagan holidays, and incense and color correspondences that will maximize the energy of your workings. This year's almanac returns to a "homespun" magical focus, and features more than eighty insightful articles by your favorite authors, including: Edible Flowers by Shira Bee Unfamiliar Familiars by Breid Foxsong Seashell Spells for Your Health by Janina Rene When a Skunk Crosses Your Path by Cerridwen Iris Shea The Magical Lore of the Celtic Harp by Roslyn Reid What Is a Wicked Witch? by Elizabeth Hazel Conjuring the Natural Spirits by Steven Repko Contributors also include: Nina Lee Braden, Ellen Dugan, Magenta Griffith, Christine Jette, Jonathan Keyes, Kristin Madden, Edain McCoy, Daniel Pharr and Robert Place
