

(Read and download) A Brief History of the Western World, Volume II: Since 1300 (with CD-ROM and InfoTrac)

A Brief History of the Western World, Volume II: Since 1300 (with CD-ROM and InfoTrac)

Thomas H. Greer, Gavin Lewis

**Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook | ebooks*

Download

Read Online

#1510032 in Books Cengage Learning 2004-07-16 Original language: English PDF # 1 .66 x 6.44 x 9.28l, 1.45 #File Name: 0534642381496 pages | File size: 50.Mb

Thomas H. Greer, Gavin Lewis : A Brief History of the Western World, Volume II: Since 1300 (with CD-ROM and InfoTrac) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A Brief History of the Western World, Volume II: Since 1300 (with CD-ROM and InfoTrac):

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Informative book!By GinaSI used this as a textbook in my Western Civilization 2 college class where the professor only used chapters 10-17 and we didn't use the InfoTrac or CD-ROM.

Based on the portions that I read, I thought that this book was very informative and well-written. The authors took a lot of care and attention in detailing the events in the history of the western world and seemed to depict all sides of every story well. It was so thorough that it almost seemed that the chapters were unnecessarily long, but again, my opinion is only from my limited readings, so you should read other reviews to get a clearer picture. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Just as expected By Rebecca Aunspaw The book was in excellent condition! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By barry knutson As expected.

Greer/Lewis's A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE WESTERN WORLD, VOLUME II SINCE 1300 provides you with a comprehensive view of the development of Western civilization in half the pages of other texts. Each chapter provides broad coverage of political, social, cultural, and religious themes. Includes a CD-ROM and access to an online university library.

"This is the best one-volume survey of Western history that I know of. Unlike most such texts, it is truly written on the college level. It doesn't talk down to its readers, though it subtly gives them the background they need." "I believe its most obvious special strength is its organization. The clear explanations of both political/diplomatic and cultural/intellectual developments woven into the narrative structure used makes the text readable and accessible for students." "I think this book is very readable and well organized. It has many important organizational advantages. It attempts to take a balanced view of various cultural and religious issues. I am very impressed with the overall quality of the text book. I will recommend that the rest of the committee look at this as an alternative to the Perry book." "The timelines are very appealing and strikingly laid out. The overviews at the beginning of each chapter are nicely presented and do a fine job of tying the chapter's themes together. The impact of technology and science is consistently well explained, and art and music are integrated nicely." "This text is set apart from comparable competing texts by the sophistication of its narrative. Most comparable texts water down the content and simplify the vocabulary. This text presents a quality narrative that matches that of much longer texts." About the Author Thomas H. Greer has studied and taught Western civilization for more than thirty-five years. He was one of the founders and developers of the highly regarded one-year humanities course at Michigan State University, completed by over 100,000 students, and served as department chairman. He is a specialist in contemporary world affairs. Among his publications are AMERICAN SOCIAL REFORM MOVEMENTS: THEIR PATTERN SINCE 1865; THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE AMERICAN DOCTRINE OF AIR POWER, 1917-1941; THE ARMY AIR FORCES IN WORLD WAR II (coauthor); WHAT ROOSEVELT THOUGHT: THE SOCIAL AND POLITICAL IDEAS OF F.D.R.; and CLASSICS OF WESTERN THOUGHT (general editor). Gavin Lewis received his Bachelor of Arts from Oxford University and his Ph.D. from Princeton University. His research and publications include studies of central European history, Sumerian civilization, Athenian politics and religion, print and culture in the Renaissance, and the decipherment of Egyptian writing. He has over thirty years' experience teaching Western civilization to undergraduates. He is the author of CHURCH AND PARTY IN POLITICAL CATHOLICISM: THE CLERGY AND THE CHRISTIAN SOCIAL PARTY IN LOWER AUSTRIA, 1887-1907; TOMAS MASARYK; and CLOSE-UPS OF THE PAST: WESTERN CIVILIZATION IN CASE STUDIES.