Forrest Moore : A History of the Black Church in Tuscaloosa before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A History of the Black Church in Tuscaloosa:

The history of the black church in Tuscaloosa could very well be the story of the black church in most of the southern cities in the United States. The purpose of this book is to document a historical progression of the black church in Tuscaloosa and how it has evolved into what it is today. The saga of a stolen, raped, enslaved, and disenfranchised people who took the crumbs of their existence and produced a loaf of hope for their descendents is worth investigating.

About the Author Pastor Moore is entering his twenty-seventh year as pastor of the Westhighland Missionary Baptist Church at 628 29th Street, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. He has earned degrees in Religious Studies from bible college and seminary and is currently a professor at the Tuscaloosa extension of the Birmingham Theological Seminary.
