Jyotirmaya Sharma : A Restatement of Religion: Swami Vivekananda and the Making of Hindu Nationalism before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A Restatement of Religion: Swami Vivekananda and the Making of Hindu Nationalism:

In this third installment of his comprehensive history of Indias religion and reappraisal of Hindu identity, Professor Jyotirmaya Sharma offers an engaging portrait of Swami Vivekananda and his relationship with his guru, the legendary Ramakrishna. Sharmas work focuses on Vivekanandas reinterpretation and formulation of diverse Indian spiritual and mystical traditions and practices as Hinduism and how it served to create, distort, and justify a national self-image. The author examines questions of caste and the primacy of the West in Vivekanandas vision, as well as the systematic marginalization of alternate religions and heterodox beliefs. In doing so, Professor Sharma provides readers with an incisive entryway into nineteenth- and twentieth-century Indian history and the rise of Hindutva, the Hindu nationalist movement.

A book of substance and importance, written in an engaging, straightforward style, illuminated by flashes of wit and, of course, by the author's deep knowledge of the cultural background and historical record. Sharmas scholarship is sound, well-informed, and well-presented. His book will become the classic statement about Vivekananda in this generation"David Shulman, Hebrew University
