Choosing a college/university is made easy!By Maretha WatkinsThis book was an important resource in helping our granddaughter decide on a college/university of her choice. You might be able to find this directory at the library, but there is nothing like having your own copy at your fingertips when you need a quick and easy reference tool.

The print version of the Higher Education Directory is our original reference tool. Listing over 5,500 institutions and more than 89,500 administrators, the 1,124 page directory is the perfect solution for the occasional user.
