Mushirul Hasan : Islam in the Subcontinent: Muslims in a Plural Society before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Islam in the Subcontinent: Muslims in a Plural Society:

This is a painstakingly researched and passionately written account of the ideas and movements that constitute the Indian Muslim's experiences over the last two centuries. Divided into five sections, the book analyses the complex processes of identity formation, the politicization of Islam, and the demand for a separate Muslim nation. Section topics include identity formation, Khilafat, Congress, Muslim relations and politics.
