Main characters are three young Muslim girls who meet up with Zheng He, the famous 15th Chinese admiral and explorer who also happened to be Muslim. They all wear the hijab but otherwise are quite assertive. Each of the girls has a special power which they each use to get out of trouble. This part of an extensive series featuring girls. The book is certainly good for building the self esteem of Muslim girls and women. It is all a good read for new readers. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Another great installment By Rizwan Uqaili Ever since the the first book in the series my 10 year old was anxiously awaiting the Case in China. The storyline and the characters have been beautifully presented and the author does a wonderful job of keeping it moving. For us, the value of this series has been to present our young girls with exciting and active role models while learning a bit of history at the same time. We got a copy for our school library as well! Thanks. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. I really enjoyed it By Papatia Feauxzar The girls are growing and becoming more amazing.

In the second book of the Jannah Jewels Series, the girls are caught and thrown aboard the ship of Zheng He, the famous Chinese Muslim Admiral. Caught in a lightning thunderstorm, they must sail in raging waters to retrieve a rare medicine plant. Can the Jannah Jewels escape the fiery arrows of pirates and make it safely back home?
