Another beautifully-written bookBy Judie SI enjoyed this book very much and it prompted me to go back and re-read her others. I love the personal stories and Ms. De Blasi's style of writing makes me feel that I'm there with her and her neighbors. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Feel like you are in Italy without leaving home. By Susan I love all of Marlena's books. Makes me feel like I am really in Italy! I would recommend reading her earlier books about meeting her husband in Venice and then when they lived in Tuscany...before you read this one. Several of the characters make more sense if you know some of the background on them. I can't wait to try some of the recipes!

Every week on a Thursday evening, a group of four Italian rural women gather in a stone house in the hills above Italys Orvieto. Therealong with their friend, Marlenathey cook together, sit down to a beautiful supper, drink their beloved local wines, and talk. Surrounded by candlelight, good food and friendship, Miranda, Ninucia, Paolina, and Gilda tell their life stories of loves lost and found, of ageing and abandonment, of mafia grudges and family feuds, and of cherished ingredients and recipes whose secrets have been passed down through generations. For fans of all things Italian, and the thousands of readers who loved The Kabul Beauty School; Eat, Pray, Love; and Best Exotic Marigold Hotel; this book is a culmination of de Blasi's 20 years spent living, traveling, cooking, eating, and drinking in Italy, and of course it includes recipes for the most mouthwatering Umbrian dishes.

"If you loved Under the Tuscan Sun, you'll love this." Red magazine
