Brittney Willis, Dillon Vrana, Sparky Taylor, Joe Biel, Steven Stothard : The Zine Yearbook (Zines) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Zine Yearbook (Zines):

The annual anthology of zine reprints now includes relevant articles about the year in zines - super fun zine fests, life changing experiences, amazing pen pal connections, and stories from people who hold zines dear to their hearts. It's a representative collection of not only reprints from zines published in 2007 but also a pulse of what 2007 was like for zines! Twice the size of previous zine yearbooks with mostly preserved original layouts!
