Lady Isabella Augusta Gregory : Visions Beliefs in the West of Ireland before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Visions Beliefs in the West of Ireland:

This material collected over a period of more than twenty years proved to be a valuable source not only for Gregory's own plays but also for Yeats' work. A classic, it presents many aspects of the supernatural seers, healers, charms, banshees, forths, the evil eye and contains a treasure trove of Irish folk-beliefs from the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries.
